

Social Scenarios

Maddy missed the goal in soccer and now our team lost the game.

You get called a name at recess by a classmate. You call him a name back.

Take always has tuna for lunch. You tell Jake that he can't join you at lunch because his lunch smells. Hannah says that's being mean.

You are trying to talk to a friend but they are not listening to you.

Josie's pencil broke during the spelling test and she doesn't have time to sharpen one. You have 2 sharp pencils.

How would you feel in these situations?
How would you solve the problem?

Social Scenarios

Miguel has been using the special markers for a long time and you want to use them, too.

You want to play a game at recess but Gabby says you can't join.

Max is bossing you around and he says he can't be your friend if you don't do what he says.

You worked really hard on your drawing and someone laughed and said it looks funny.

You have been raising your hand to answer a math question and the teacher still hasn't called on you.

